Travel Tips

EXCHANGE RATE

Take into account the currency exchange rate.

6,96 Bs. x 1 USD. Official

Please note that the exchange rate for the U.S. dollar in Bolivia is currently fluctuating between 13 and 16 Bolivianos (BOB), depending on where and how the exchange is made (formal or informal market).

We recommend checking daily rates and using authorized exchange points for greater security.

LOCAL CURRENCY

Please note that the official currency is the Boliviano (BOB), but U.S. dollars are also accepted in many places.

MONEY EXCHANGE

You will also have access to a money exchange point (USD to BOB) during the accreditation process inside the hotel, where you'll be able to exchange your money on June 11 and 12 until noon. On the other days, you can exchange your money at currency exchange offices located in the city center or upon arrival at the airport.

BANK CARD

Remember that the official currency is the Boliviano (BOB). Please note that some establishments may not accept credit or debit cards, so you may need cash in Bolivianos. However, you will have the option to exchange currency at the accreditation desk.

TIP

Please take note that tipping is voluntary. In case of restaurants, you can tip 10%.

WEATHER

Average Temperatures in June

Daily high: between 23 °C and 26 °C (73 °F to 79 °F)

Nighttime low: between 15 °C and 17 °C (59 °F to 62 °F)

Monthly average: around 19.7 °C (67.5 °F)

These temperatures indicate mild days and cool nights, ideal for outdoor activities during the day and a comfortable rest at night.

CLOTHING

Daytime: light and breathable clothes

Nighttime: light jacket or sweater

Footwear: comfortable for walking

Dress Code

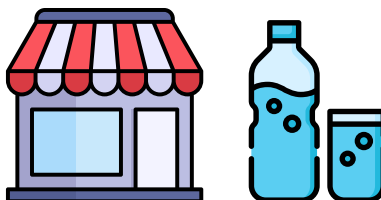

The general dress code for the ABLA 2025 Convention is Business casual.

However, for official events such as the Welcome Cocktail and other evening receptions, we kindly ask attendees to dress in formal or business attire.

WATER

It is recommended to drink bottled mineral water.
The price is approximately 10 Bolivianos.

TAXI FARE

A taxi from Viru Viru Airport to Los Tajibos Hotel costs approximately 80 to 100 BOB, and from the hotel to the CBA Santa Cruz, around 22 BOB.

For greater safety, you can use Uber or Yango, available on the App Store and Google Play.
